

SECU Family House Community Services Directory

Ashe County, North Carolina

Community Resource Directory, Appalachian State University	This directory, compiled by the BCBSNC Institute for Health and Human Services at Appalachian State University, includes a comprehensive listing of health and human service providers in Watauga, Ashe, and Avery counties.	http://ihhs.appstate.edu/about/directory
Ashe Services for Aging	Ashe Services for Aging provides a wide range of services to Seniors and Disabled Adults of Ashe County, North Carolina including (among many other programs) Delivered Meals, Adult Day Health Care, Child Day Care, Assisted Living, Respite and In-Home Aide	www.asheaging.com or 336-246-2461
Ashe County DSS	Child Support, Children's Services, Medicaid & Medicaid Transportation, Adult Services, Food & Nutrition Services, Work First, & Daycare Assistance	www.ashecountygov.com/departments/social-services or 336.846.5719
High Country Area Agency on Aging	Information and Assistance, Respite Vouchers, Support Groups, Daybreak Respite Program, Education	http://www.highcountryaging.org/ or 866-219-3643
High Country Area Agency on Aging Information and Assistance	Helpful list of national, statewide, and local resources, information, and links for older adults and caregivers	http://www.highcountryaging.org/resources/information-assistance
High Country Caregiver Foundation	Provides caregivers with advocacy, information and referral resources, education, emotional support, support groups, and supplemental and respite services such as an adult day respite program	http://www.highcountrycaregiverfoundation.org/ or 828- 265-5434 ext.128
WAMY Community Action, Inc.	Provides assistance with housing, family services, food & nutrition, and youth services	www.wamycommunityaction.org or 1-800-571-WAMY (9269)

For questions and corrections, please contact Lindley Curtis, Support Services Coordinator at the SECU Family House, at 336-793-2822 or Lindley.Curtis@familyhousews.org.