

SECU Family House Community Services Directory

West Virginia

2-1-1	2-1-1 is a free, confidential nationwide referral and information database and helpline and website that connects people to essential health and human services.	www.211.org or dial 2-1-1
Benefits.gov	This free nationwide service helps you find out which government benefits you may be able to receive.	www.benefits.gov
BenefitsCheckUp	BenefitsCheckUp is a free nationwide service for adults over 55 that helps you find state, federal, and private benefits programs available where you live. These benefits programs can help pay for prescriptions, health care, food, utilities, and more.	www.benefitscheckup.org
Eldercare Locator	This free nationwide service connects adults over 60 and their caregivers to services in their communities. Topics include caregiver resources, health insurance, in-home services, long term care, and others	www.eldercare.gov or 1-800-677-1116
Help4WV	Provides resources related to depression, anxiety, addiction, and other mental health concerns. Online database and helpline agents can guide you to resources and solutions.	www.help4wv.com or 1-844-HELP4WV
West Virginia Bureau of Senior Services	Provides links to local Area Agencies on Aging, county aging providers, case management agencies, personal attendant agencies, personal care agencies, and others.	www.wvseniorservices.gov or (877) 987-3646

West Virginia Aging & Disability Resource Network (ADRN)	This free resource helps you locate providers, organizations, and programs in West Virginia. A database can be accessed online or by speaking with professionally trained staff.	https://www.wvnavigate.org or 1-866-987-2372
West Virginia Department of Health & Human Resources	Provides links to services that include adult and family government services	www.dhhr.wv.gov or (304) 558-0684
West Virginia inROADS	This free service evaluates you for possible eligibility and allows you to apply/review for benefits offered by the state of West Virginia.	www.wvinroads.org

The information in the SECU Family House Community Services Directory is as accurate as possible. However, our communities are always growing and changing, and we welcome updates and additional information. For general caregiving resources and diseases-specific resources, please see visit www.familyhousews.org and look under Support Services. For questions and corrections, please contact Lindley Curtis, Support Services Coordinator at the SECU Family House, at 336-793-2822 or Lindley.Curtis@familyhousews.org.